

Sierra Grande Chardonnay

Producer: Boutinot Chile
Winemaker: Boutinot France winemaking team
Country of Origin: Chile
Region of Origin: Central Valley
Grapes: Chardonnay 100%
ABV: 13%
Case Size: 6x75cl
Vintage: 2015
Suitable For: Vegetarians and Vegans
Closure Type: Screw Cap

The One-Liner

A fantastic expression of unoaked Chilean mountain Chardonnay, perfect by-the-glass wine!

Tasting Note

Ripe white peaches and mango on the nose with tight and structured mineral flavours on the palate. No oak, very pure, clean and crisp with bright tropical fruit.

Producer Details

These are some of our most successful house wines yet they are definitely serious wines for the money. The strength of our long term relationships with our growers in Chile allows us to keep prices low and quality high. The grapes are sourced from high mountain vineyards in the Maule Valley. The Merlot is rich and round with real depth of flavour whilst the crisp leafy Sauvignon betrays its high altitude origins with mouth-watering floral and gooseberry flavours. The fruit driven Chardonnay is rich, round and immediately appealing whilst the Cabernet is full of dark cassis fruit with ripe soft tannins.

In The Vineyard

Grapes are sourced from a stunning 200 year old hacienda which sits amidst strawberry fields in the Andean foothills above Talca in the beautiful Maule Valley. Produced from old vine Chardonnay (25-40yrs) grown on the Hacienda Valle Frio estate in Maule Valley. The altitude here means that the diurnal temperature variation extends the growing season balancing ripeness and acidity.

In The Winery

No oak is used so the wine is a pure expression of the fruit. The old wooden winery in the midst of strawberry fields has survived all of Chile's worst earthquakes over the past 2 centuries.

Awards & Press

2011 Vintage: Chardonnay du Monde 2012 - Silver Award

Food Recommendations

Perfect with poultry, fish dishes & creamy pasta bakes.